

Country Office Nepal, Red Cross Marg, Tahachal Kathmandu. Phone 5385843, 5386100

The International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (IFRC) is the world's largest humanitarian organization providing assistance without discrimination as to nationality, race, religious belief, class or political opinion. The office's role is to support the Nepal Red Cross Society (NRCS) in delivering humanitarian services to the most vulnerable. More information on the organization and its activities, can be obtained from the following website:

www.ifrc.org

Position: Senior Disaster Risk Management Policy Officer for IFRC

Qualification: Master's degree in Disaster Management or equivalent, social sciences, applied sciences or related field

Experience: 05-07 years of progressive experience with the Humanitarian sector, proven experience in policy engagement, including coordination with and between Government, donors and development partners

Responsibilities:

The Senior DRM Policy Officer will be responsible for several initiatives implemented by IFRC with NRCS, including the secretariat role of the National Community Based Disaster Risk Management (CBDRM) Platform chaired by the Ministry of Federal Affairs and General Administration (MOFAGA), the IFRC Engagement in Sajag Nepal as well as the Zurich Floods Resilience Alliance, execute the policy influencing agenda.

Interested applicants should submit their CV accompanied by a cover letter demonstrating how their experience is relevant to the specific technical requirements and details of the job duties and responsibilities mentioned in the job description no later than 12th May 2022. Detailed job responsibilities for the position can be obtained from the following website:

<http://www.jobsnepal.com/employer/international-federation-of-red-cross-and-red-crescent-societies-ifrc/8923>

The Federation is an equal opportunity employer and women are highly encouraged to apply.

The IFRC reserves the right to decide the candidates and only shortlisted candidates will be contacted for the selection process.