

Trainee Opportunity

Practical Action is a change making organisation that works in unconventional ways. We put ingenious ideas to work so people in poverty can change their world. We do things differently, so answers that start small can grow big - bringing people together in bold collaborations, using innovation and knowledge to build futures free from poverty and helping shape a world that works better for everyone.

Practical Action announces a trainee opportunity for fresh women graduates in arts, social works, journalism, communications or any related field for Practical Action Nepal Office.

About the role

The trainee will work in communications team as assigned by International Stories Advisor. The trainee in content management will support the maintenance of the content banks, identify the best content, keep them accurately labelled and ensure the arrangement of the content is consistently stored and labelled. The trainee will get opportunity to work with communications professionals around the world, liaising with them to identify best evidence of impact and the most engaging stories as they are collected.

About you

You have a bachelor's degree in arts, social works, journalism, communications, or any related field. You are a team player and a multi-tasker and have interest in photography and creative writing. You have strong communication skills and fluent in spoken and written English. You have a good learning agility and a zeal in applying your knowledge in a practical field.

Why join us?

The opportunity to work for an organisation that is making a positive difference to the lives of people worldwide, a friendly and supportive culture, working with values-driven and highly engaged colleagues, work life balance and flexible working – these are just some of the reasons we think Practical Action is a great place to work.

Practical Action is committed to safeguarding and protecting children and vulnerable adults, and candidates will be subject to pre-employment checks including criminal checks and terrorist financing. To ensure that Practical Action meets its obligations of safer recruitment, appointment to positions within Practical Action will be subject to a satisfactory criminal check. Criminal checks will be conducted for all roles.
